

Singapore
JewelFest
2008

URBAN OCT 31st 2008

SINGAPORE JEWELFEST 2008

Singapore will dazzle the region once again with the return of Singapore JewelFest at Ngee Ann City, Celebrating the bounteous splendour of nature, this year's festival will see up to 18 prestigious jewellers showcasing an approximate $100 million worth of haute joaillerie. The scintillating exhibits will include the works of 18th century royal jewellers, Fabergé, and renowned jewellers to Hollywood stars, Mouawad. Themed "Nature of Beauty", the festival's Jewel Pavilion will also display objets d'art from Europe and Asia's finest designers to leave you beyond a little bewitched, bothered and bewildered.

The Jewel Box. Vinea draws inspiration from European vineyards with its delicately crafted design featuring Colombian emeralds and glittering diamonds.
L'OFFICIEL OCT 2008

THE JEWEL BOX
Majestic Both Ways

Alluding to royal India is this generous choker that is a harmonious blend of trend and tradition. Opulent with silver and gold, this magnificent piece of jewellery is studded with diamonds and emeralds on one side; and a rich ruby-covered pendant that dazzles the eyes on the other.

PRESTIGE OCT 2008

JEWELS FOR POSTERITY

*Go beyond the surface and be mesmerised
by the treasures within*

SOLITAIRE OCT 2008

The Jewel Box (Singapore)

Blending trends and tradition, the inde-regal Hasli choker is the very definition of haute joaillerie with its opulent elements of silver, gold, diamonds, emeralds and hidden rubies at the choker's back.

THE JEWEL BOX | SINGAPORE

The Vinea draws inspiration from European vineyard tendrils and swirly vines. This one-of-a-kind design is enhanced with Colombian emeralds and diamonds resembling bursting crops and leaves of the rustic countryside.

SOLITAIRE OCT 2008

DAZZLING WEDDING

This bespoke Juliet necklace is made of 18K rose and white gold, encrusted with brilliant and rose-cut diamonds.

JEWELFEST 2008

